Deal in Cows Results in Suit-Decision

Reserved. The case of Charles H. Baker vs. Harold Cummings of Lebanon, a civil action, that was booked for the 18th inst., was tried before Justice of the Peace Samuel B. Harvey Friday morn-

The action was the result of a deal in cows, to recover a balance of $32. Ir. Cummings purchased ten cowstom Mr. Baker for $57 each and paid on account.

The first defense was that the settlement was not due until Aprii, and the second was a breach of warranty and counter claim. Cummings claim-ed that all ten cows were warranted, but Baker only warranted five and each man picked out five. Then Cummings swapped one cow for another and agreed to pay $12 boot; one of the cows did not turn out according to aleged agreempt.

The evidence was all submitted Friday and the case settled, but the court reserved decision uxfil next Tuesday. Attorney P. J. Daushey represented the plaintiff and Altorney George E. Elliman appeared for the defendant.

action and purifies the entire system. It is recognized as a family medicine everywhere. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens and sustains

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Geisler, of 3434 A Street, Philadelphia, Pa., have just celebrated their golden wedding. Mr. Geisler has been cured of chronic bronchitis, Mrs. Geisler of grip and indigestion by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. Mr. Geisler, like thousands of others who have been cured by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, is glad to tell of it, so that others who are sick may know of this great medicine. Mr. Geisler writes: "I had a very bad case of chronic bronchitis. After trying other remedies was cured by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. My wife had grip and indigestion and is being rapidly restored to health by Duffy's Pure Malt > Whiskey as we have been. I heartily endorse it as a tonic-stimulant." Every testimonial is guaranteed genuine and is published in good faith with

Whiskey. We can see a daily improvement in her. We have been married over fifty years. I send you this testimonial with pleasure as I wish others to be benefited by Duffy's Pure Malt

If you wish to keep young, strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions. It tones and strengthens the heart the system; is a promoter of health and longevity; makes the old young and keeps the young strong.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Mait Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal mait whiskey and is sold in scaled bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1.00. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the scal over the cork is unbroken. Write Consulting Physician, Duffy Mait Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y., for free illustrated medical booklet and free advice.
